

INDEX

- Tolomei, Bernardo, founder of the Olive-tani, 4
 —, Francesca, 84, 217
 —, Ghinppcia, 84
 —, Guccio, 38
 —, Jacomo di Francesco, 84
 —, Jacomo di Sozzmo, 300, 301
 —, Lodovica di Granello, Catherine's letter to, 285
 —, Matteo, Dominican friar, 84, 213, 215, 217, 320
 —, Rabe, 84, 217
 —, Raimondo, Senator of Rome, 41
 —, Spmello, 213, 214
 Tommaso da Fermo, master-general of the Dominicans, 389, 402
 Trinci, Corrado, 221-223
 —, Jacoma dTEste, 221; Catherine's letter to her, 222, 223
 —, Tncio, 221-223; probable reference to him in the Dialogo, 363 n.
 Tortelli, Cecco, 277
 Turenne (de), Vicomte, 175
 —, Elys, 184
- UBALDINI, Ippolito, Catherine's letter to, 136
 Ugurghien, Nen, 88, 89
 Unzio, Tommaso, Franciscan prophet, 222
 Urban V, Pope (Guillaume de Grimoard), his election, 61; comes to Italy and Rome, 62-67, 73s 745; letters from Petrarca to him, 74-76; his cardinals, 77; receives Birgitta's revelations, 78, 79; returns to Avignon and dies, 79; Catherine's reference to him, 81, 187
- VI, Pope (Bartolommeo Prignano), 184, 185, 233; Catherine's first letter to him, 243-245; makes peace with Florence, 245, 246, 249; his character, 257-260; his doubtful election, 263-269; his rupture with the Sacred College, 273, 275, 276, 277; Catherine's enthusiasm for him, 282-286; makes new cardinals, 285, 286; summons Catherine to Rome, 287-290; summons the servants of God, 293-296; hires the Compagna di San Giorgio, 307, 308; foiled by the Romans, 308, 309; enters the Vatican, 314; Catherine's letter to him, 314, 315; his brief to the Catholic world, 315; instructions to Fra Raimondo, 316, 317; relations with Italian communes, 320-323; appeals to Louis of Hungary, 324, 325; Catherine's last letters to him, 330, 331; she reconciles him with the Romans, 332, 352; her prayers for him, 383; crowns Charles of Durazzo, 395; his nepotism and cruelty, 396, 397; madness and death, 397 Usunbardi, Bartolo, 172; Catherine's letters to him, 326, 417, 418 —, Orsa, 172, 417, 418 Uzzano (da), Antonio, 327

VADATERRA (da), Alfonsp, the "hermit-bishop," confessor to Birgitta, 77, 78 »., 102-105 j papal emissary to Catherine, 128, 129, 146; testimony concerning the Schism, 252, 257, 259, 260, 267, 272; befriends Tora Gam-bacorti, 287; his death, 395 n~ Valentmois, Countess of, 183, 184 Varano, Rodolfo, 65, 189, 221, 224 Venice, Doge of (Andrea Contarini), igr Vergne (de), Pierre, Cardinal, 255, 266, 268 Vico (di), Francesco, Prefect of Rome, 151, 199, 221, 280, 289, 330, 331

—, Francesco Moricotti, Archbishop of Pisa, 129, 148; Cardinal, 286 —, Giovanni, Prefect of Rome, 40, 74 Vigne (delle), Luigi, 199 n. —, Raimondo, his

Legenda, viii; his translation of the Dialogo, xv; cited, 6-15, 17, 19-22, 25, 26, 47-52, 60, 82-84, 91, 98, 99; becomes Catherine's director and disciple, 122-126; at Pisa and Gorgona, 129, 130, 132-136, 138; goes to Hawkwood's company, 144, 145; 146, 151; goes to Avignon, 161-163; Catherine's letters to him there, 164-168; her Giovanni, 165 ».; interprets between her and the Pope, 178, 179, 181, 182, 183, 193; at Toulon, 195; accompanies Catherine into the contado, 213-215; accused of plotting, 213-215; prior of the Minerva, 218; in bad odour at Rome, 224; Catherine's letter to him on the subject, 225, 226; consulted by Niccolò Sodenni, 228; 229, 231, 234, 236; Catherine's letter to him from Florence, 240, 241; quoted, 241-243, 250; friendship with Pedro de Luna, 257, 5 287, 288; opposes the sending of the two Catherines to Naples, 290; his first mission to France, 291-293; his second abortive mission, 316-318;

